قَالَ الْإِمَامُ الشَّافِعِيُّ

تَعْلَمُ فَلَيْسَ الْمَرْءُ يُولَدُ عَالِمًا

وَلَيْسَ أَخُو عِلْمٍ كَمَنْ هُوَ جَاهِلٌ

وَإِنْ كَبِيرَ الْقَوْمِ لَا عِلْمَ عِنْدَهُ

صَغِيرٌ إِذَا اتَّفَقَتْ عَلَيْهِ الْجَحَافِلُ

وَإِنْ صَغِيرَ الْقَوْمِ إِنْ كَانَ عَالِمًا

كَبِيرٌ إِذَا رُدَّتْ إِلَيْهِ الْمَحَافِلُ

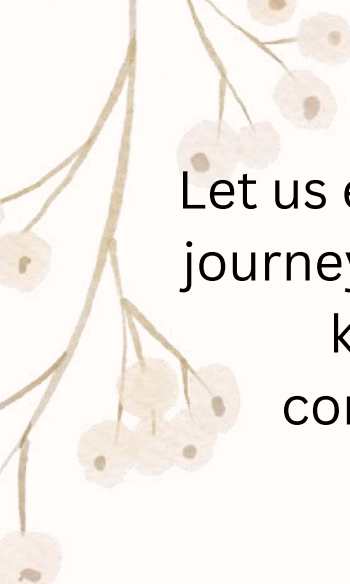

The Wisdom of Imam Al-Shafi'i

"The Power of Knowledge"

Knowledge is a beacon that guides us through life, a treasure no wealth can match. Imam Al Shafi'i, one of the greatest scholars of Islamic history, beautifully captured the essence of learning in his timeless words

Learn, for a person is not born knowledgeable,
And one who lacks knowledge is
unlike one who is learned.
The leader of a people, if devoid
of knowledge,
Is insignificant when
surrounded by multitudes.
Yet the youngest among them, if he is knowledgeable,
Becomes great when councils
turn to him.

Let us embrace the pursuit of knowledge as a lifelong journey. Whether young or old, a student or a leader, knowledge equips us to make meaningful contributions to our communities and rise to challenges.

Reflection:

What steps are you taking today to grow in knowledge?

Quote Design Idea:

- Place the poem in a calligraphy-style font, with a subtle background of books or a scroll.
- Include an image of a bright lamp symbolizing the illumination of knowledge.

Tajweed story

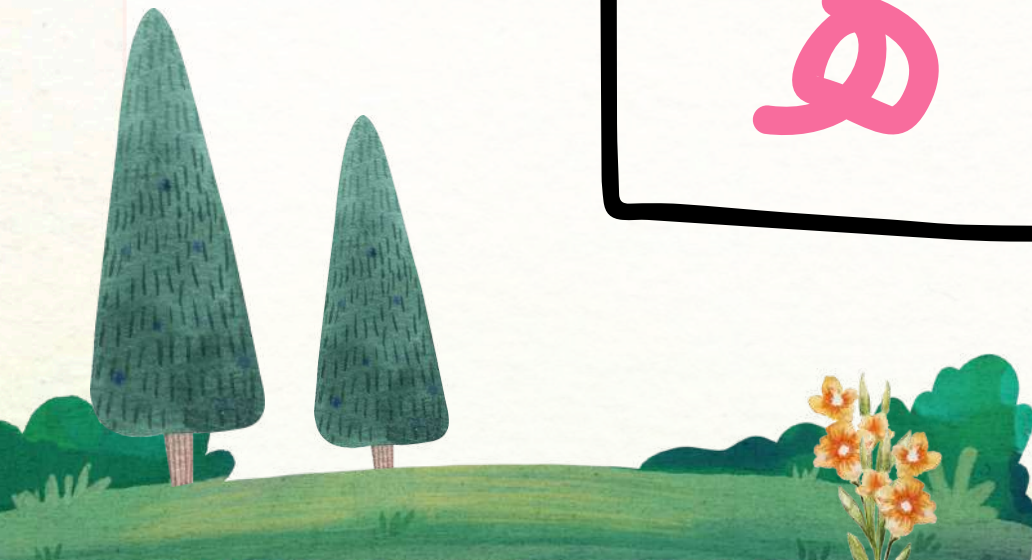

Izhar

what is Izhar in tajweed?

Izhar means obvious or clear

Izhar letters

Izhar

Once upon a time, in a small village, there was a young boy named Sami. Sami loved reading the Quran, but he always felt a little confused when he came across certain letters while reciting. One day, his teacher, Ustaadha Mahboobah, noticed Sami's confusion and decided to teach him an important rule in Tajweed called Izhar.

“Do you know that some letters in the Quran have a special way of being pronounced clearly, Sami?”

Ustaadha Mahboobah asked.

Sami shook his head, curious. “What do you mean, Ustaadha?”

“Let me tell you a story,” Ustaadha Mahboobah smiled. “Imagine you are walking through a forest with your friend. It's so quiet that when you speak, your voice echoes through the trees. If you say your words clearly, the echo will be strong and clear. But if you whisper or mumble, the echo won't be as loud. This is like Izhar in Tajweed.”

Izhar

She continued, "Izhar means to pronounce certain letters very clearly without mixing them with other sounds. There are six letters that need this special treatment: ء (Hamzah), ع (Ain), غ (Ghayn), ح (Hah), خ (Khaa), and ه (Hah). When these letters come right after the noon saakinah (ن) or tanween, you must say them clearly, just like the strong echo in the forest."

Sami was excited. "So when I see these letters after the noon saakinah or tanween, I have to make sure my voice is clear and loud, just like the echo?"

"Exactly!" Ustaadha Mahboobah said. "Let's practice together. When you recite a verse like 'مَنْ ءَامَنَ' (Whoever believes), make sure to pronounce the Hamzah (ء) clearly after the noon saakinah."

Sami smiled and repeated, "Maan Aaman," with a clear voice. He could hear the strong echo in his heart, just like Ustaadha Mahboobah described. From that day on, Sami practiced Izhar in every verse he recited, making sure the letters came out clearly, just like the forest's echo. And his recitation became more beautiful and correct, bringing him closer to the Quran every day.
